

Forest Animals

1. Abruzzo Brown Bear (Italy)
2. Coriscan Red Deer (extinct in Corisca and Sardinia)
3. Bison (European)
4. Ivory Billed Woodpecker
5. Eagle (Southern bald)
6. California Condor
7. Wolves
8. Woodpecker
9. Mountain Lion
10. Manatee
11. Green Turtle
12. Galapagos Penguin

Jungle Animals

1. Indri (grave danger of extinction)
2. Golden Lion Marmoset
3. Orangutan
4. Mountain Gorilla
5. Elephant
6. Bengal Tiger
7. Cheetah
8. Panda
9. Snow Leopard
10. Roselva
11. Tuscan
12. Lizard

Sea Animals

1. Blue Whale
2. Humpback Whale
3. Greenland Right Whale
4. Polar Bear
5. Sea Otter
6. Monk Seal
7. Walrus
8. Manatee
9. Green Turtle
10. Galapagos Penguin

Interview with Ms. Ramos

Ms. Ramos is the art teacher here at Rancho. She says she loves teaching art. Ms. Ramos says she doesn't know exactly why she went into teaching, she just decided to do so. She attended college at California State University in LA.

Ms. Ramos started teaching at an elementary level. She taught art at Fremont School. She was a 3rd and 4th grade bilingual teacher for many years. Ms. Ramos has been teaching at Rancho for nine years.

Recently, Ms. Ramos' classes have been working on a mural with a professional artist, Carmen Leon. The mural pictures endangered animals and was done by the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students. It will be used to decorate the school.

Ms. Ramos likes to paint and do photography in her free time. She says that her Mother, Dad, and her Grandmother have been inspirational to her. Her father was a cabinet maker and her mother liked to do art and embroidery. Ms. Ramos serves as an inspiration to her students and the teachers with whom she works.

Ileana Ortega
Amanda Nelson
Michelle Verissimo

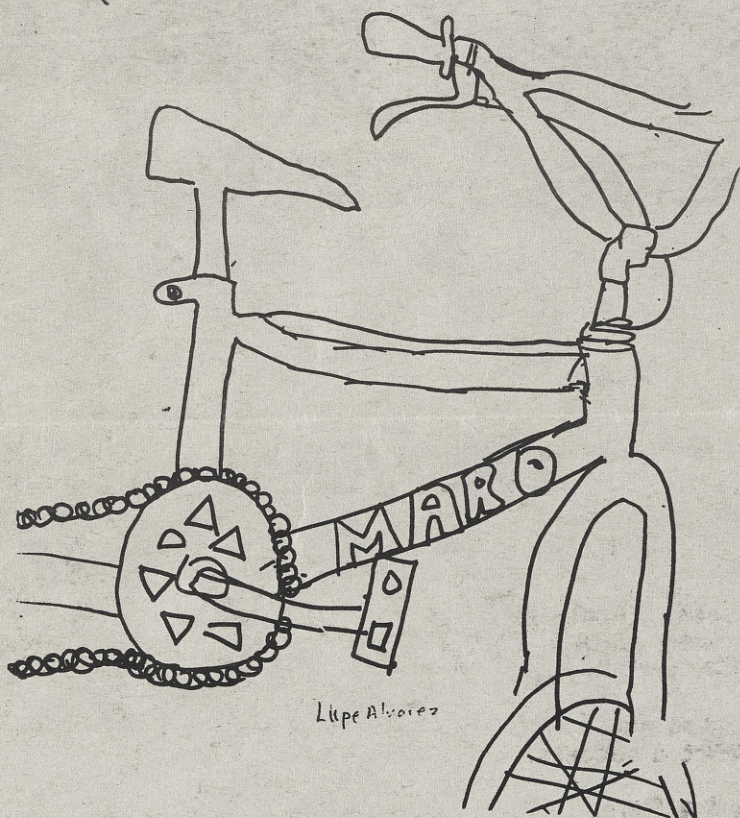

David
Cortez

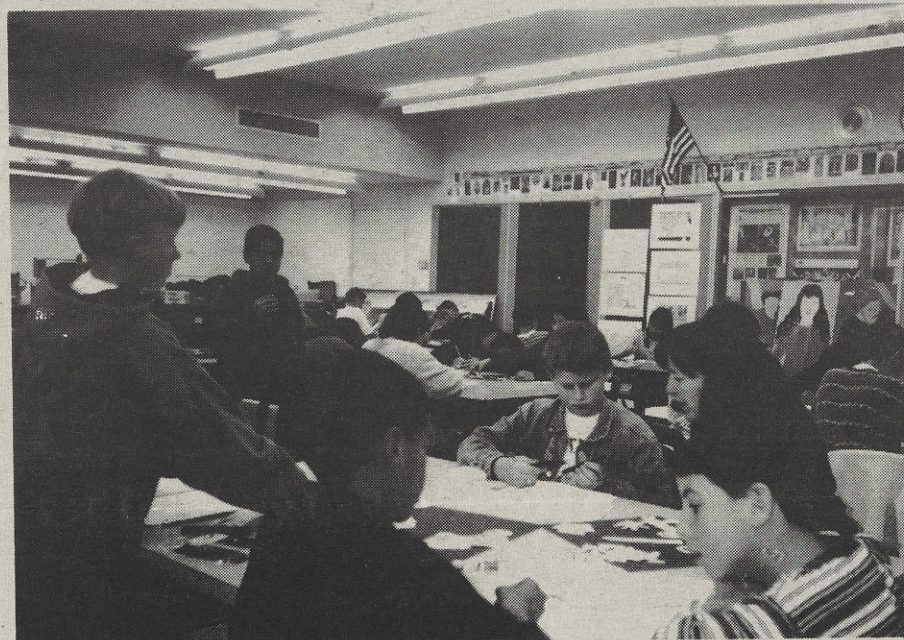

by Mateo
Marquez

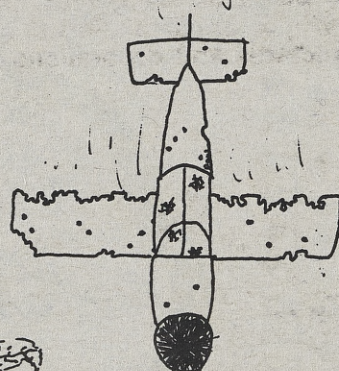

by Ben Hughes

Lupe Alvarez

Ms. Ramos helping her student in her Art class.

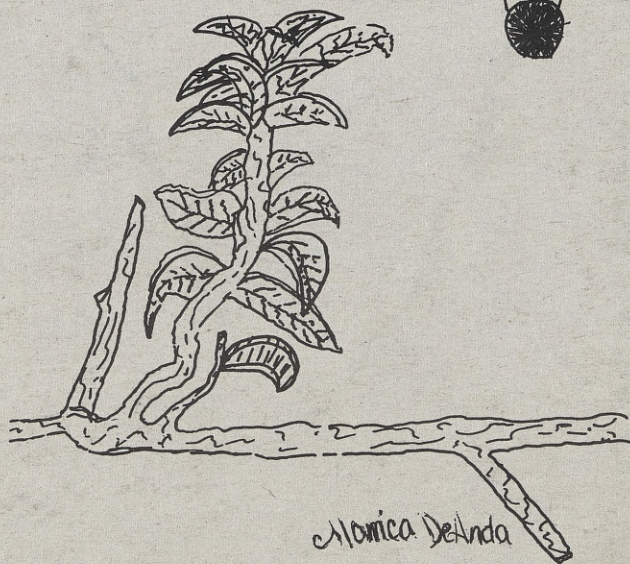

By Paul
Garrettson

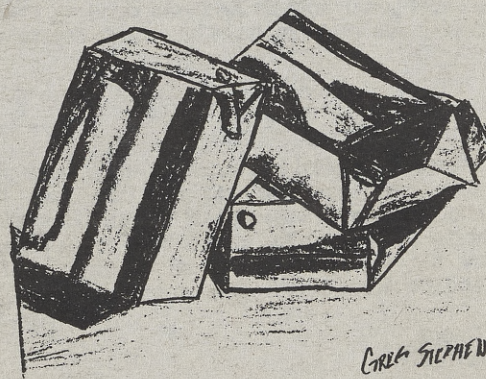

By Karen Lilie

Vincent Lujan

Monica Delinda

GREG STEPHENS